Attractions Introduction :	Jioufen Village Jioufen was once a gold mining center and was referred to as Little Shanghai for its prosperity and colorful night life. In 1890, someone struck gold near Jioufen. The poor village with only nine families soon attracted prospectors of 4,000 families. However, with the decline of gold mining activities, Jioufen fades. Situated in mountains and face the ocean, Jioufen is a village with magnificent view of natural beauty which attracts several movie directors to shoot here. The movie “The Sad City” won the first prize in Venice Film Festival and thus awakened people’s memory of Jioufen. Now, there are many unique teahouses in Jioufen. These teahouses are best stops during visit to this mountain village.  Pitouchiao Cape From afar, Pitouchiao Cape looks like the nose of a kitten leaning by the sea. The total area of the cape is about 4 to 5 km2, whose tall abrasion caves, platforms and other eroded landforms are clearly in sight on the cape’s hanging cliff. With an elevation of about 120m, the famous Pitouchiao Cape Lighthouse is at the end of the trail along which one can enjoy the endless ocean scenes and the eroded landforms. Standing in the lighthouse, waves from the East China Sea and the Pacific are meeting and flapping right in front of you.
